

APPENDIX 3 Be Eco Poland

The 24 cards

The ecological class/club organized at school is active	Teachers organize outdoor learning	Teachers organize school trips to visit national parks, forests, sanctuaries
There are a lot of plants in the classrooms	The school recycle rubbish	'the ecological contract' is signed by the students
There is a school garden	The school saves electricity	The teachers and students save water
The students take part in ecological competitions	The students take part in ecological events: cleaning the world, planting trees, helping animal shelters etc.	There are trees, parks, rivers, meadows or fields around the school
The students use reused coursebooks	The school shop sells healthy food in eco-friendly wrappings	There is a safe parking area for bikes at school
The students study ecology or environmental protection as a subject	Ecological organizations work at school	The students use lunchboxes for their sandwiches instead of plastic bags
The school organizes a fair to exchange or sell used toys, clothes, books, games	The school does not overuse paper. It uses recycled paper for printing and photocopying	School dinners contain a lot of fruit and vegetables
The school cooperates with local ecological organizations, forestry management etc	Safe ecological products are used for cleaning the school	The school is insulated, it has airtight windows – it does not waste thermal energy in cold seasons